

The Money Jars

All Your Income

Your Money's Many Roles

Spending

This money is for your needs and wants. It includes your necessary household expenses and the things you think you really can't live without.

Freedom

This money is used to invest in ASSETS (stocks, mutual funds, rental property, business, etc.) that will produce CASH FLOW (mail box income) for you when you retire.

This jar is your Golden Goose!

Saving

This money is used as your Contingency Fund (rainy day money) and to make large purchases such as a house, car, college education, clothing, bike, vacations, computers, etc.

Education

This money is used for education, whether to pay for grad school, seminars or golf lessons...keep learning!

Play

This money is used to do anything you wish with. Massage, fancy dinner out, expensive candles, whatever. You must spend this money every month!

Donating

This money is used to help others any way you wish. By helping others you believe there is an abundant supply of money (energy) in the world or enough for everyone.
